

Instructions for Joining “Our Forest Place”

What is “Our Forest Place”?

“Our Forest Place” is a new tool we hope will gather diverse interests, and synthesize science to inform public land planning and decision making in the Sierra Nevada region. Among our goals for the website are improving transparency and enhancing opportunities to be part of the planning process. With “Our Forest Place,” we hope to energize innovation and creativity by connecting members and openly discussing trends and conditions across the Sierra Nevada bio-region.

Step 1: Go to Our Forest Place in a web browser.
